Comments

“ Lucy and my grandparents were old friends on S. Pontiac Street for decades. As a child I remember her homemade lemonade and cookies. When there would be a group of kids playing on the street she would set up a table on her front porch with homemade goodies. She was like a grandmother to all of us. It's been such a long time since our family has been in touch as no one is in the area anymore. I will never forget her smile and her telling me to remember "to count my blessings at the end of the day". May she rest in peace.

With our sympathy and love,

Christine (Pilarski) Krupka, Mike Pilarski, Kathy (Pilarski) Wyroba and families
