*“ We grew up together, played hide and seek, lived across the street from each other and went to the same Elementary School #69. Had brothers with the same name-David. Lost them both!!
I haven't seen you in awhile but you are still an Old Friend. Just wanted to say that another one has been taken way too soon.
Finding comfort that you are now with your mom, dad and brother.
Do me a favor and say Hi to my brother, too.
Rest in Peace my Friend*

*“ I had the privilege of working with Al for 10 years. His knowledge and expertise shaped D-shift. He was the lead, he trained me on F3, and supported me as acting supervisor. I know he loved his mom, his Sara, and the great outdoors.
He was rough and tough, hard to cuff. A hell of a man to handle. He was my friend and I will miss him.
My condolences to his family. I hope in your grief you can find comfort in the good and loving memories that was Al.
Sincerely,
Harold James Girdlestone*

“ Al was a mountain of a man. His rough exterior was trumped by his love for the outdoors and his generous personality. Every year he would grace us with fresh venison sausage from his latest harvest from camp and the latest great tasting moonshine!! I would take it to my camp and share it with the boys. My son Jr and I had the pleasure of sighting in shotguns with Al's specialty self-loaded 3" high powered 12 gauge loads that would take your shoulder off. We would swap hunting stories every year and I was never able to take a bigger buck than Al would take. Rest in peace Al and may your family take solace in the fact that you touched many lives in your most humble manner. You were a mountain of a man with a heart of gold!!
