“ Al my brother.I still can't believe your gone.I thought we had some more beers and rides on the dirt bikes left in us.All those trips at the cabin, marti-gra, ocean city.It was a bunch of laughs and you provided us with plenty of them.If the group picked on you ,you let it roll rt off of you or you made it more humorous. I was always amazed at that in you.You will be missed by me and many.Rest in peace my brother. Joe Przemielewski

“ Alex, what can be said about your amazing sense of humor. We had a huge group of friends way back in school and the connection and bond will live forever for the class of 88'. I am really still lost for words because we are all so young still. I wish I could be back home to celebrate you. But I probably don't know how to drive in the snow anymore. I remember when you worked at Tony's pizza on Harlem. Way to many memories. I will miss you crazy FB post your absent will be felt by many. Especially your best buddies. My condition to your sisters and family.

“ My name is Randy McQuillan a retired UPS employee. Had an opportunity to work directly with Al. A true bright spot in my career. He had (I will rephrase has) a dedicated work ethic,wonderful with customers. He has a sense of humor that made me laugh and smile. On occasion he would pass by on the forklift and give me a gentle kick in the backside. Rest my good man. You have the character to keep God in line.
