“ I was so sorry to read of Alice's passing. She was a lovely lady and I always enjoyed talking with her. My condolences to her friends and family.

I first met Alice and her husband King, in 1997, when they were moving back to the Buffalo area and I sold them the condo that Alice was living in. She called me several years ago to talk about selling it but decided the time wasn't right.

Again my sympathy to the family and if I can help in any way, please don't hesitate to give me a call. Margretta Lisick Howard Hanna Real Estate. 716-310-7950

“ “Wherever a beautiful soul has been, there is a trail of beautiful memories.” During the brief time that I knew Alice she kindly shared many beautiful memories of her years growing up in Waterbury – stories that were lighthearted and, at the same time, touching reminders of her family life and her many achievements from childhood through university.

I would like to have known her better, but I so appreciate those wide-ranging conversations we had.

Know that I share in your sadness.

“ Dear Max, Mira, Bruce, David and Peggy,
So sorry to learn of Alice's passing. I know Alice appreciated all the tender care she received during these last several months from her many family members. I was so hoping to visit her once again when I returned from my winter in Florida but....not to be. Alice was a friend of many, many years and that doesn't happen so often in life. She and I had many happy times together, even last year during our Covid Porch Visits. I'll treasure my memories as will all of you.
Sincerely, Sylvia Moran

“ David, Bruce and Max,
I was saddened to learn of your Mom's passing. Also upon hearing this I was flooded with a great many wonderful memories. I was the youngest of the Driscoll Clan I remember spending a lot of time with her. I would stop over often and your Mom always took the time to visit with me. She made me this wonderful dress that I cherished and still think about to this day!
Please know I will keep your family in my thoughts and prayers.
Sincerely,
Marcy Driscoll Munson
