Bruce Werner

October 26, 1949 - July 9, 2024

On September 4, 1989, I met my twin soul, my husband, and my best friend, Bruce. For nearly 35 years we were bound together, facing life head -on, embracing its joys and challenges.

Bruce proposed to me on Mt. Shasta and hand - in - hand we traveled through Europe, Mexico, and the USA, savoring incredible adventures. All along the way, Bruce crushed language and cultural barriers, charming strangers with his wide- open heart.

If he could have eaten notes, Bruce would have never needed food. He was a master guitarist who was content to remain in the background, letting the music that flowed from his fingers take center stage.

He was a unicorn. With extraordinary grace, courage, and optimism, he waged a valiant battle against liver cancer for 10 years, mystifying his doctors, who not only helped him live, but thrive. Special thanks to Dr. Anthony Martinez, Director of "La Bodega" Center for Hepatology Care at ECOMC and Dr. Renuka Iyer, Co-Director of Liver and Pancreas Tumor Center at Roswell Park.

Bruce promised that when he got to heaven, he would take special care of those of us who remain on earth; his wife Mary Gin Starkweather and his Philadelphia family, sisters Nancy Boland and Marjory Werner, brothers, David and Alan, nieces Lacey Birchard and Cassie Boland, nephew Evan Werner and two grand-nephews, Jude, and Sol Birchard.

If anyone would like to make a donation in Bruce's memory, please send a check to La Bodega Center for Hepatology Care, c/o Dr. Anthony Martinez, ECEM, 462 Grider Street, Buffalo, NY 14215.

Bruce wrote a perfect song for his final journey of his life. To hear "Reachin" please follow this link.

“ I knew Bruce when I was 16 years old and he was working at Walt’s grocery store in center city Philly. along with tons of others. He always had a smile on his face and was kind. Great guitar player even then and he took my best friend Rhonda to her prom. I have a picture of them somewhere and if I find it I’ll pass it on. May his memory be a blessing! Myra.

“ The world we share is a better place because Bruce Werner lived here. Music, Mary Gin and his deep interior spirituality anchored him in place while he gave himself away wherever he was needed with a generosity that matched his joy in living. Ever curious about Life Itself, he'd sometimes just shake his head in wonder at the magnificence or absurdity of whatever he discovered. I'm utterly grateful for every moment you, Mary Gin and I spent together. Fly, Songbird. Fly.
