“ We fondly remember Connie and Marta from the old neighborhood. I recall him as a mild-mannered individual always willing to help others. His lawn and home were beyond meticulous. One day, I was about 18 years old and parked on the street, my car wouldn't start and I had to go to work. My parents were not home and without my car I couldn't make it to work. He saw me tinkering with the car, he came over and tried to help. He gave me a ride to work and offered to pick me up when my shift was done. He and his wife would sit in the garage in the evenings and sometimes I would walk over and "hang out". They became friends with my parents. Sorry for your loss and I'll always remember the car story and also him teaching my brother Dennis and I about the different clouds. May he rest in peace with his wife Marta.
