“ Dee was a selfless giver at St. Casimir's. You could often find her in the kitchen at the social center cooking up great food for our fund raisers and making everyone around her laugh. She will be missed by the St. Casimir crowd. Eternal rest upon her oh Lord.

Dee was a funny, kind and caring person who was guided in life by her religion and principles. Her passing is a serious loss to all who knew her.

God's blessing and strength to the family.
