“ so sad to hear of the passing of Don. Everyone knew him as a nice and friendly person- I worked with him at Bonton- and the store sold those ceramic pineapples- Don told me he hated them- I wanted to buy one and he insisted on selling it to me-kind of like a joke- I still have it and will fondly remember Don. My condolences to his family.

“ Don made more of an impact day by day than any other person at Fantasy Island. Don always kept high energy and positivity and spread it through out all park departments and to our guest. Don was always the first person to offer a helping hand no matter what department.

Example: the park closed due to weather but Don and I and a few others were already there so instead of leaving like many others we stayed and put in some hours to get the park squeaky clean from scrubbing toilets, bathroom floors to even wiping down every attraction in kiddie land, also did I mention this was after his overnight at his other job! Don you were a man of many talents and always strived to bring out the best in everyone no matter there background. You are truly missed and hope your ridding all your favorite rides high in the sky. For your final call, Dispatch to 205 you are clear of duty for the final time. Rest easy! ❤️🙏

“ How do I put a lifetime of memories into a few short sentences? You were the best big brother ever. You used to let me make up rules to games as I went along so I would always win. We had a secret language that we sometimes still used as adults (who can I talk to now about gongges, namwons, & goetzes?) You let me call you pooppy head well into adulthood. I miss you so much already. I know that you are in heaven enjoying all you can eat Reese's. I know that this is just goodbye for now. I will see you again someday pooppy head. Pet Timmy for me.

“ Don was one of my closest friends and I loved him very much. We shared so many moments of laughter, deep conversation, and just adventure. We had a passion for shenanigans at our time at Bon Ton and those jokes continued right into the parking lot-Don always visited my trunk! I miss you friend and I'll never stop.
