“ Dear Betty & Cliff and family; We remember Ed (and Betty too) very fondly from the "old neighborhood". Their house was always like a doll house - immaculate and manicured. Ed was friendly and always had time for a hello. He'd help a stranger and do anything he could do for anyone. Betty would bake cookies, pies, the best brownies ever and always have a plate for friends and neighbors. Sad to say, it's been a while since we've seen them after the move. May he rest in peace. May you all celebrate 93 years. Our love to Betty and Cliff and the family. Old neighbors from Weiss St. Pat & Wanda Pojack
