“ Our deepest condolences on the death of your mom. My mother taught with Jackie at Clinton for many years and considered her a best friend. Jackie definitely made the world a better place. Chuck and Marci Curtin

Dear Chuck and Marci - Your family's friendship was so important in our Mom's life for as long as I can remember. Your Mom Rusty and our Mom became friends through teaching together but they remained close after they retired - Mom loved going out to lunch and for a ride with your Mom.

“ *I met Jackie ten years ago when she joined our French Book Club. I noticed from the beginning that she was a very dedicated person who enjoyed reading and learning. I am glad I had the good fortune to have known her.
I wish you peace and comfort as you grieve.*

“ Jackie had a life worth celebrating! I am so sorry for your loss. Two things about Jackie that come to mind are her values/discipline and her willingness to get out of her comfort zone and try new things. I remember that she kept the TV inside a cabinet which must have been her way of hiding the "junk food" so the family could focus on more valuable pursuits such as learning, reading, studying, and teaching. She instilled these values in her girls when they were young, and I can see her influence to this day in my great friend Amy.....

On the flip side, she did not shy away from the crazier, but just as valuable, ideas of fun that teenagers have. She was a great sport when spending the summer at the beach in the midst of bugs and other creatures invading house and home. Not to mention fireworks, fast cars and loud revelers walking by at all hours of the night. Jackie was always available to drive, be it very early or very late, to or from school dances, ski club, road races, etc. or to just sit and chat over a cup of tea or OJ. She shared a great camaraderie with the girls' friends, parents and parent's friends alike. She took a sincere interest in their lives. I think of the many nights at Studio Arena with an extended social group sharing good plays and good times.....

Everyone who had the occasion to spend time with Jackie will remember her fondly.

“ Goodbye my dear beloved neighbour. I can't believe that your kind wise discreet intelligence is not in this world any longer. How would I imagine Buffalo without you now. I still hear your voice over the phone telling "you could always come back here, it's your home". With friends like you any country becomes a home. I sincerely wish ythat there will be a place where we could meet again and hear your smart stories and comments. Love you as you used to say in the our phone conversations even though Tsan used to smile lovingly at those words, knowing how it costs you to show your feelings even though you were a loving person!!! I already miss your voice. Sincere condolences to your family

*Amy, You are just as beautiful as your mother. I feel as if I know your Mom from reading these wonderful tributes to a gracious crusader. I wish I could have met her, however, my blessing is to know you.

“Jackie became a friend when she was both my sons First Grade teacher at Clinton Elementary- little did I know that her daughter would work with me and become my best friend! We have the best memories of shared Christmases, weddings and fun dinners at Fridays! So sad that we did see her these past few years- she will live in our hearts forever!❤️❤️❤️❤️
