

June E. Hoffmann

June 30, 1931 - December 23, 2020

June Elizabeth Hoffmann (nee Schrader) 89, of Newstead, New York, entered into God's heavenly kingdom on Tuesday, December 22, 2020.

She was born in Buffalo New York, to the late Clyde J. and Leona (nee Handrick) Schrader on June 30, 1931.

June married her best friend, Donald, who pre-deceased her in 2014. June and Don lived in Cheektowaga, New York, where they lovingly raised their five children, Jim (Debbie), Kathee (Tom) Jones, Karen (the late Fred) Di Paolo, Jerry (Jan), and Kolleen (Bob) Indorf. She was a proud grandmother to Brooke, Luke, JamieLynn (Rob), Rachel (Norm), Jeremy (Elena), Joel (Elizabeth), the late Kirsten, and Nathanael; and great- grandmother to Mario, Elias, Mathurin, Madelia, Jonas, Eowyn, and Anthony. She is also survived by her step-grandchildren and their children; Debra (Keith), Tommy (Alanna), Chris (Jess), Ed (Becky), Nick, Sage, Easton, Trevor, Alyssa, and Dean.

June was a life-long Lutheran, attending Holy Trinity, St. Luke's, Holy Cross, and Trinity Lutheran churches over the years. In 1978, June and Don moved to Newstead, where she and Don were active church members, serving in various capacities.

June was an avid knitter, seamstress, quilter, and cook; always making projects big or small to give away. Her children and grandchildren remember matching outfits and ties, special Christmas sweaters, countless mittens, beautiful quilts, and delicious meals. June's talents were boundless. She will surely be missed by many.

You are cordially invited to leave a message of condolence and/or share a favorite memory of June.

“ Your mom was so special in the way she and your dad shared in many tasks around Trinity-S.Newstead, especially with Food Pantry. She will best be remembered for her starting our quilter's group and each month patiently working with those of us who were a little slow in catching on. She just giggled and worked with us. You have the sympathy of the worshippers at Trinity.
