“ Mike can't believe you are gone. You were a gentle soul and I will miss talking with you and hearing your laughter. Thank you for being such a caring and a truly good friend to Danielle. You were always there for her and she misses you and it is hard for her to process that you are gone. Thank you for the times you helped me too. I know you are in the comforting arms of Jesus and one day we will all see each other again. Give your Mom my McMahan sister a hug for me. My deepest condolences go out to all your family I know you are truly missed. Love Mom Skorka

“ Michael, my best friend and my brother, I know you're building us a Viking hut in heaven, and it was hard for me to even begin writing anything here because I can't believe you are gone. I guess I'm pretending you're not. And it sucks that this is the only place left where I can tell you anything. I miss you. Tell mom and dad, and my daddy and grandma that I'll see you all again when I get there. May God be with us all.

Thank you Danielle for the kind words for my nephew. We still can't understand why he left all those that are still here and loved him. I know that he is with his Mom and Dad in Heaven.

“ Hearing this news was such a shock and when i heard a life time of memories came flooding in. Basketball in the yard, football in the snow. Playing games that only the neighborhood kids knew of late into the summer nights with everyone. There will never be another Grandma Mora to play Brain eaters with that was as fun as you. There are so many memories. I haven't seen or talked to you in nearly 2 decades but it feels like we were all together on kinsey yesterday enjoying our youths without a care in the world. Sadly life goes on and we grow up and away. Unfortunately thats just how life goes i guess. I hope you're in paradise mikey. I hope your with your parents. I hope everyone that has crossed before you was waiting to welcome you to paradise. Mikey i will never forget you. the childhood memories may fade but as i look at the battle wound on my arm given to me by your fence during a fierce basket ball game 30 years ago in your yard on my arm I know you'll one day welcome me into paradise and we'll have a rematch. Mikey my thoughts are with you and i hope you are at peace. Rest easy old friend.

Matt I was a close friend. I knew Mike and your mom .. Also matt your brother only trusted you in your family I don't know why. Expect what he said to me and this is not the place I will reach out to you soon matt ... I told him to talk to you Mike was a great person. When mom passed he became a lost soul saying all everyone cares about was money not speaking of you Matt at all and aunt pat, deb Why don't you ask Chrissy his brother what he said to mike .. this is not the place to put it all out there. All I can say is this world lost a good person and this is horrible to have lost a fiend at such a young age .. I just know what Mike confided in me .. so I am not trying to upset anyone but I do know Mike had planned To think a head like mom and dad did and was going to be buying a plot and nice grave Not right away but down the line and I do think it is a shame that this did not happen for such a good guy .. and matt I know it's not your fault so don't ever blame yourself like I said in the beginning he love you and trusted you. He still loved chris too .. it's just a shame is all .. and I am so sorry for all of his family's losses this past year may god bless you and help all heal ...

Thank you for your kind words IA. Mike really did become a lost soul. He didn't think that he had any place to go, but he was offered a place at Matt's house. We do know that he was hurting, but when I talked with him about 7 days befor we left on vacation, he sounded good. We never fathomed that he would make the choice that he did. We miss him terribly!
