“ To the best of my memory, I struck a friendship with Pat from the beginning. I've enjoyed many conversations, laughs and shared tears. She was a steadfast lady true to herself, and I always respected and admired that. that. She said what she had to and that was that. She was always very welcoming, friendly and like a mom to all of her flock. I have known Cecily for equal time and the apple didn't fall far from the tree. Courageous ladies with a heart of gold and faith and character that could move mountains. Be at peace and continue to watch over your family in the way only you could do. Cecily, Tom, Deanna and Adam, I extend my sincerest condolences to you all and I know the legacy she left with each of you will live forever in your hearts. Thoughts and prayers are being shared.
