“ Paul and Gretchen were friends of my parents and grandparents. My grandmother, Estelle Chronik and Gretchen would be found in the kitchen baking up a storm and enjoying wine while my grandfather and Paul would be in the garage having their beers. He taught me and my brother how to fish and play poker!!!! I know how much he loved and missed his wife and children. Living to 100 years old most likely means you have a big reunion in Heaven. Thoughts and prayers to all.
