“ So sorry to learn of "Stan the Man's" passing. At 99 years, I can only imagine what he has seen in his life time. He was neighbors to my grand parents and my parents. He would always bring canned vegetables or fruits over. He is with his wife and son who he missed so much. Our sympathy to all of his family.

“ We were saddened to learn of Stan's passing. But, at the age of 99, what a colorful life he had much like his character. I remember him and my grand parents on Cable Street sitting in the garage in the cool evenings. Rita made lemonade, cookies and brownies for all of us and Stan would talk about his vegetable gardens. He had huge tomatoes, zucchini's , and other veggies ready to share! May he now rest in peace and enjoy eternity with his wife Rita and all gone before him. Our condolences to his family. Catherine, let us know what we can do if you need anything.

All our love,

Richard and Leslie Witkowski and family.
