

Walter J. Sawyer, Sr.

April 2, 1938 - April 21, 2026

Walter J. Sawyer, age 87, was received into the arms of his Saviour and beloved bride on Monday, April 20, 2026, after a valiant and courageous struggle with Parkinsons Disease and Dementia. Born the only son of Thomas and Irene (nee Urbanski) in Buffalo New York. He was a very proud veteran having served in the Army for two tours of duty. His bride of almost 44 years passed away on December 4, 2021. Father of Joseph J. (Anne Bartold) Sawyer, Walter J. Jr. (Kimberly) Sawyer and Donna L. (late Ronald) Eberling. Grandfather of 6 and great grandfather of 4. Surviving are two sisters: Rose Marie (late Thomas) Pilarski and Gwendolyn (late Michael) Visconti. he was a special uncle to 3 nephews and 4 nieces and great nieces and nephews. His canine buddy, Theodore "Teddy" was his companion for over 12 years. He retired as a Financial Planner for HSBC after almost 30 years of dedicated service. After retirement he enjoyed helping people with their income tax returns and freely gave his advice on investments and financial planning. All this for a firm handshake and a smile. he taught his children and then his great grandchildren and other family members the "value of a dollar" and preparing for the future.
